

WHERE YOU LIVE AFFECTS HOW YOU LIVE.

CBE students like 2017 Olmsted Scholar David de la Cruz, '17, are partnering with some of the world's most vulnerable communities in the fight for environmental justice.

DISCOVER HOW

FROM THE DEAN'S DESK

Save the Date: February 6th, 2018 at 6PM

Dean's Distinguished Lecture

David Lawrence Gray FAIA of David Lawrence Gray Architects, AIA

Distinguished Faculty Award for Lifetime Achievement

The College of Built Environments invites nominations of individuals to be considered for receipt of the Distinguished Faculty Award for Lifetime Achievement. This award recognizes permanent faculty members who have made important contributions to their field and who also have had significant impact on the CBE community of faculty, staff, and students. The deadline for nominations is February 26, 2018.

LEARN MORE

Raymond Emory, B.Arch '52, awarded Distinguished Alumni Veteran Award

Pearl Harbor veteran Raymond D. Emory has helped to ensure that those who made the ultimate sacrifice will finally receive the honors they deserve. #UWservices

READ MORE

Kenichi Nakano Retrospective: An Enduring Civic Legacy exhibit open through 12/8

Next week is the last week to visit Landscape Architecture's retrospective exhibit in Gould Pavilion celebrating the life and career of Kenichi Nakano from Sept. 27 - Dec 08.

LEARN MORE

FALL HIGHLIGHTS

CBE is happy to announce the launch of the Department of Real Estate.

The new department builds upon the enormous success of the Runstad Center for Real Estate Studies. The Department and the Runstad Center will work alongside each other in continuing to provide world-class research and a learning experience of the highest possible quality.

More highlights from the Fall Quarter:

UW and Tacoma Livable City Year Kicks Off

Students and faculty are working with community members and City of Tacoma staff this

Celebrating 47 Years with Donald H. Miller

On October 16th, students, colleagues, friends, and family came together to honor Don

CBE Alum is state's first Somali-refugee elected official

Zak Idan, BS CM '11, who came to the U.S. from Somalia as a academic year on projects to improve livability and sustainability across Tacoma.

Read more

Miller and celebrate the 47 years of service that he dedicated to the Department of Urban Design and Planning.

Read more

refugee when he was 11, has been elected to the Tukwila City Council.

Read more

Scholarship funds distributed in the 2017-2018 Academic Year:

$808,313

Because of the generous support of our donors, the next generation of architects, builders, landscape designers, urban planners and real estate professionals will design, build, and lead the communities of tomorrow.

SUPPORT BE

Follow us on social media to get the latest events and news:

CONTACT US | PRIVACY | TERMS

© 2017 University of Washington | College of Built Environments
224 Gould Hall, Box 355726, Seattle, WA 98195-5726 | be.washington.edu

This email was sent to {{lead.Email Address}}
Unsubscribe or change your email preferences